

Global Learning Track
Assessment Institute Roundtable Discussion

This roundtable session will provide attendees and presenters an opportunity to share strategies, discuss challenges, and receive feedback on ideas related to the assessment of global learning. It is open to faculty, staff, administrators and students of any level of experience with global learning and/or assessment.

1. What's being assessed on your campus?
2. What's driving assessment?
3. How does your campus feel about assessment?
4. What's guiding assessment – or recommended to guide assessment?
5. What methods are being used?
6. What ideas for assessment do you have on which you'd like feedback?
7. What concerns are there related to assessment?
8. What logistical challenges are you experiencing?
9. What strategies did you learn about from the Global Learning Track this year that you would like to continue discussing/learn more about?
