

2020 Assessment Institute Information Session for Presenters & Moderators

Stephen P. Hundley, Ph.D.

Senior Advisor to the Chancellor for Planning and Institutional Improvement &

Professor of Organizational Leadership, IUPUI

Executive Editor, Assessment Update

Chair, Assessment Institute

assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu

Welcome!

- Thank you for taking time to join us for this information session for presenters and moderators of the 2020 Assessment Institute, held virtually Sunday, October 25 through Wednesday, October 28, 2020
- The Institute organizer is IUPUI, and we are grateful to our campus leadership and colleagues for their support
- We will post a Qualtrics attendance link in the chat; please open in a separate window and register your attendance
- Type any questions you may have in the Q&A box at the bottom of screen; we will address these questions in the latter portion of our time together

Learning Outcomes from this Information Session

- Describe the purposes and audiences of the Assessment Institute
- Explain the changes being made as a result of our virtual offering in 2020
- Recognize the considerations of presenting via Zoom Webinar at this year's Institute
- Sign-up for a small group Zoom Webinar consultation session between now and the start of the Institute
- Prepare for and deliver a dynamic, informative presentation to this year's attendees

First, Meet the Rest of the Team Bringing You the Institute

- Track Leaders and Institute Partners make invaluable intellectual contributions
- From Planning and Institutional Improvement at IUPUI:
 - Angela Bergman
 - Linda Durr
 - Susan Kahn
 - Michele Trent
 - Shirley Yorger
- From University Information Technology Services:
 - Greg Brenner
 - Gary Curto
 - Ross Wilkerson

Purposes and Audiences of the Assessment Institute

- The Assessment Institute is the oldest and largest higher education event of its type in the U.S. focused on assessment and improvement
- Typically, we have nearly 1,200 colleagues join us each year for our in-person event at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown Hotel
- This year, we are offering the Institute as a virtual engagement, and are providing complimentary registration to support colleagues during COVID-19
- We have had an enthusiastic response: so far, 6,000+ individuals have signed-up to attend this year's Institute; we have 250+ unique educational sessions

Purposes and Audiences of the Assessment Institute

- The Assessment Institute is an inclusive higher education event
- All institutional types are represented
- Several disciplines and areas of study are represented
- This year, attendees come from all 50 states and 27 countries
- Faculty, administrators, and staff from all areas of campus attend; we also have several student attendees each year
- Everyone—from newcomers to advanced practitioners—is valued and welcomed

Purposes and Audiences of the Assessment Institute

- We offer 10 dedicated tracks and numerous other topics
- Dedicated tracks: Community Engagement; Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion; Faculty Development; Global Learning; Graduate & Professional Education; HIPs in the States, including ePortfolios; Learning Improvement; NILOA; STEM Education; and Student Affairs Programs & Services
- Other topics include: Accreditation; Assessment in Online Courses & Programs; Assessment Methods; Community Colleges; Competency-Based Education; Emerging Trends; General Education; Institution-wide Data Collection/Use; Leadership in Assessment; Major Fields; and Use of Technologies

Changes Being Made Because of Virtual Offering

- All events, including pre-Institute Workshops, are included in the registration
- Our virtual schedule is organized to meet the needs of the majority of our attendees, most of whom reside in the Continental United States:

Eastern Time Zone	Central Time Zone	Mountain Time Zone	Pacific Time Zone
11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.	10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.	9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.	8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

- To accommodate our shorter-than-usual days, we have extended this year's Institute by one day—through Wednesday, October 28, 2020
- All sessions will be recorded and posted to our website; some individuals will elect to participate by watching the recorded sessions after the Institute

Changes Being Made Because of Virtual Offering

- To ensure your recorded session is posted to our website, all presenters and moderators must sign and return our Recording Release Form to planning@iupui.edu
- All concurrent sessions will be offered via the 500-person instance of Zoom Webinar platform; person(s) 501+ will receive a notice the Zoom Webinar is full
- Attendees will not sign-up for individual sessions; thus, you have the potential for several hundred colleagues to attend your individual session
- Because some of us may be unaccustomed to audience sizes this large, it will be important to plan for the considerations of presenting via Zoom Webinar

Considerations of Presenting via Zoom Webinar

- Each presentation team needs to identify their own moderator (colleague; student; research assistant); the moderator needs to register for the Institute
- Please review the detailed Concurrent Session Presenter Instructions and Concurrent Session Moderator Instructions; each of these documents outlines step-by-step actions to take before and during your session
- Zoom Webinar provides an excellent platform to have your work showcased to a wide audience; however, there are some limitations to participant interactivity
- Limitations include: inability to see participants; lack of breakout room options; and the need to monitor chat and Q&A functions to address attendee needs

Considerations of Presenting via Zoom Webinar

- Presentation teams and their moderator(s) should design their sessions to determine how they will promote attendee engagement
- Presentation teams and their moderator(s) should announce to attendees at the start of the session how they will promote engagement, including points in the session during which Q&A or other interactivity will take place
- You are welcome to 'paste' links to surveys, polls, additional resources, etc. in the chat function; however, we recommend not having participants leave the Zoom webinar (instead, have them launch a new window and remain with you)
- Consider leveraging tools/technologies from your own institution in your session

Sign-up for Small Group Consultations

- Presentation teams and moderator(s) are encouraged to sign-up to attend one of several small group consultation sessions on using Zoom Webinar
- Michele Trent from our team will be happy to provide you times when such consultations are available; please email her directly at mtrent@iupui.edu
- Even if your presentation is not yet fully developed, we encourage you to sign-up for the consultation session to become familiar with Zoom Webinar, as this can inform your session planning
- Please review the detailed Concurrent Session Presenter Instructions and Concurrent Session Moderator Instructions before the consultation session

Prepare for & Deliver a Dynamic, Informative Presentation

- Recognize the purposes and audiences of the Assessment Institute, along with the changes we are making as a result of our virtual offering this year
- Review the detailed instructions and sign-up for a group consultation session
- Begin thinking about how you will develop and implement your session, in light of Zoom Webinar considerations; also consider leveraging your own tools and technologies to promote interactivity (if available and possible)
- Attendees appreciate concrete (vs. theoretical) examples, opportunities to ask questions/follow-up with you, and handouts or resource materials to refer back to afterwards

Prepare for & Deliver a Dynamic, Informative Presentation

- Please send handout materials you wish to have posted to our website prior to the Institute to planning@iupui.edu by Monday, October 5, 2020
- On the day of your session, it is important that moderators log into the room 15 minutes before the session start time; presenters should log into the room 10 minutes before the session start time
- Prior to your session, watch for emails from these accounts: Zoom, Planning, Aiweb, or Aicon; these will contain your unique Zoom links
- Consider adding Zoom connection details to your calendar; this option is included in the email containing your Zoom connection details

Finally...

- Remember that we are offering complimentary registration to this year's Institute; with 6,000+ attendees, your work will receive tremendous visibility
- We will let attendees know what to expect in our advance communication with them; in other words, we will attempt to proactively manage their expectations
- Our attendees are grateful for the time, expertise, and resources you share with them—that is a principal reason colleagues attend the Institute
- We thank you for attending this information session today, and appreciate you spending time and energy to develop and deliver a dynamic, informative presentation at this year's Assessment Institute!

Contact Us for Additional Information

- Michele Trent, to sign-up for small group consultation sessions on using Zoom Webinar: mtrent@iupui.edu
- Angela Bergman, to provide handouts, to return the Recording Release Form, and with session scheduling questions: planning@iupui.edu
- Stephen Hundley, to discuss any other matters concerning the Assessment Institute: shundley@iupui.edu
- Visit assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu for complete details about this year's Institute, including virtual schedule overview and session information