

Assessment for Student Learning at Your Institution.

Fill in the blue circles in the web to indicate the departments/committees/offices where assessment of student learning occurs. Where are the connections between these offices? How can you leverage them? Who are your champions for this work?

Weaving A Web: Building A Culture of Assessment: Reflection Questions

Use this hand-out to jot down some responses to the reflection questions that are included in the presentation.

Who are your champions for assessment?

Who are you collaborating with now and who would you like to collaborate with and why?

What are some of the projects and practices at your campus that exist because of collaborative, grassroots efforts across units?

What opportunities might exist?
