2023 Assessment Institute: Proposal Development Information Session

Stephen P. Hundley
Caleb J. Keith
Nicholas A. Curtis
Megan Good

assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu
Welcome and Introductions

Stephen P. Hundley

Caleb J. Keith

Nicholas A. Curtis

Megan Good
Goals for Info Session

• Describe the purposes and audiences of the Assessment Institute

• Identify themes from the recently-concluded 2022 Institute

• Consider developing a presentation geared toward the new Research & Practice in Assessment (RPA) Best Scholarly Presentation Award

• Recognize the elements of a good proposal

• Submit a proposal for the 2023 Assessment Institute by March 1, 2023

• Attend the 2023 Assessment Institute held October 29-31, 2023, in Indianapolis
Hosted by IUPUI, the Assessment Institute is the oldest and largest U.S. event focused on assessing and improving higher education.

1,100+ colleagues joined us at our in-person 2022 event at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown Hotel featuring approximately 300 educational sessions.

All institutional types and several disciplines and areas of study are represented.

Faculty, administrators, and staff from all areas of campus attend, along with researchers and policymakers; several students also attend each year.

Everyone—from newcomers to advanced practitioners—is valued and welcomed.
Some of our Partners

- AALHE - Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education
- AAEEBL - Association for Authentic, Experiential, and Evidence-Based Learning
- AIR - Association for Institutional Research
- AAC&U – American Association of Colleges & Universities
- CARS - Center for Assessment and Research Studies
- CPR/NSSE - Center for Postsecondary Research and the National Survey of Student Engagement
Some of our Partners

- HBCU-CEEQA - HBCU Collaborative for Excellence in Educational Quality Assurance

- HEDS - Higher Education Data Sharing Consortium

- HIPs (High Impact Practices) - HIPs in the States

- NILOA - National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment

- SAAL - Student Affairs Assessment Leaders
Program Content

• Dedicated tracks: Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion; Faculty Development; Global Learning; Graduate/Professional Education; HIPs in the States, including Community Engagement; Learning Improvement; NILOA; STEM Education; Student Affairs and Co-Curricular Programs and Services; and Student Partnership and Engagement in Assessment

• Other topics: Accreditation; Assessment in Online Courses & Programs; Assessment Methods; Campus Business Operations; Community Colleges; Competency-Based Education; Emerging Trends; Fraternity and Sorority Life; General Education; Institution-wide Data Collection/Use; Leadership in Assessment; Major Fields; and Use of Technologies
Summary of 2022 Themes

• A focus on assessment methods and approaches in various contexts

• Attending to issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion

• Using inclusive and credible evidence in designing instruction and assessing learning

• Focusing on quality and fidelity of learning experiences

• Supporting the holistic development of students
Summary of 2022 Themes

• Engaging stakeholders throughout the learning enterprise, including in co-curricular, community, and experiential settings

• Fostering professional development and rewards/recognition for assessment

• Promoting institutional cultures to sustain, scale, and improve learning interventions

• Collaborating with learning partners to advance student learning and success

• Involving students in the work of assessing and improving learning
RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award

- About Research & Practice in Assessment (RPA); learn more at rpajournal.com
- Audiences for RPA
- Types of articles published in RPA
- Assessment Institute and RPA partnership
- RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award
- Process for semi-finalist and finalist selections, including publishing in RPA
RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award

• Criteria for RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award
  • Theoretical Foundation
  • Methodology, Analysis, and Argumentation
  • Conclusions
  • Potential Impact

• Refer to RPA’s Best Scholarly Presentation Award Rubric for details at assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu
Elements of a Good Proposal

• Presenter(s) Information

• Presentation Title

• Preferred Format(s)

  • 60-minute Concurrent Session

  • 20-minute Rise-and-Shine Session (7:00-7:20 a.m. / 7:30-7:50 a.m.)

• Poster Session
Elements of a Good Proposal

- Audience Level (beginners, intermediate, or advanced)
- Main Presentation Topic (only 1) and Related Topics (up to 2 more)
- Interest in Having Proposal Considered for RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award
- Abstract for Program Book (up to 100 words)
- Extended Description (1-2 pages)
- Learning outcomes, how participants will be involved, and linkage to RPA criteria if proposal to be considered for RPA Best Scholarly Presentation Award
Additional Advice

Advice from Nick

Advice from Megan

Advice from Caleb

Advice from Stephen
Concluding Reminders

• Proposals should be submitted online by March 1, 2023, which is the priority deadline for submission; visit assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu for details.

• Multiple proposals from an individual/team may be submitted; however, space constraints may preclude accepting all of them (we will consult proposers).

• All presenters are expected to pay registration fees and will need to register for the Assessment Institute via the Institute website.

• Presentations will take place at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown Hotel October 29-31, 2023.
Q&A / Discussion

• Contact us for additional information:

• Stephen P. Hundley (shundley@iupui.edu)

• Caleb J. Keith (cakeith@iupui.edu)

• Nicholas A. Curtis (nicholas.curtis@marquette.edu)

• Megan Good (Good2mr@jmu.edu)

assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu