

The Cornerstone of Syllabus Management

We have witnessed first-hand how a lack of syllabus organization and systems can significantly impact your institution. In fact, we recognized this back in 2007, and decided to do something about it. As the pioneers of online syllabus management, we introduced a purpose-built syllabus management platform to solve the growing need for better tools, processes, and expertise surrounding the syllabus lifecycle.

How We Help

Concourse is a data-driven, template-based, accessible syllabus management platform that seamlessly integrates with your current systems. With Concourse, you can build, edit, update, display, audit, and archive your syllabi in one intuitive, cloud-hosted platform. Concourse saves time and creates a seamless path to syllabi, making it a treasured resource for faculty, staff, and students alike.

Centralization

For Key Content Discovery

Through a centralized system, Concourse gives you an organizational strategy in which you are able to effectively manage and maintain syllabi content. Rather than monitoring syllabus by syllabus, your team will have the ability to access and edit documents through a single login.

Access

That's Always "On"

Concourse is a web-based platform, so everyone - students, instructors, staff members, and administrators - can access their syllabi from anywhere, any time. LMS integration and single sign on compatibility provide multiple access points.

Consistency

That Ensures Accurate Data

To ensure consistency, Concourse provides a common platform to manage, edit, and format templates and syllabi with just a few clicks. You can then set granular, role-based permissions to easily and efficiently manage who can view or edit specific information within each syllabus.

Reporting

That Keeps You On Track

Managing a large number of syllabi requires the ability to access important information about multiple syllabi and your system as a whole. Concourse's robust reporting suite allows you to quickly compile and review information about any cross section of syllabi from your institution. Dive into your data with ease and report back to your institution leaders with confidence.

“ Now we have a standard way to display syllabi. We know descriptions and policies are going to be correct. We are confident they are accessible. The entire experience is better ” with Concourse.
